

Self-Leadership

What is actually keeping you stuck, and the decision that ends it.

SESSION ARC · 90 MINUTES

- 01

Opening Frame

5 to 10 min

This is the first session, so there is no bridge to review yet. We open by naming what brought each person into the room and what they are hoping to leave with.
- 02

Teaching

15 to 20 min

Core concept delivered via presentation. Keep responses focused. Clarity is created through decisions, not discussion. Listen for what resonates most.
- 03

Silent Work

15 to 20 min

Work through the worksheet independently. No discussion during this phase. The quality of your silent work determines the quality of everything that follows.
- 04

Live Coaching

20 to 25 min

One or two participants are walked through their answers out loud with the coach while the room works its own copy and joins the discussion. The insights apply to everyone, not just the person speaking.
- 05

Commitment

5 to 10 min

Name one decision and one action before leaving. Decisions are made inside the session, not postponed. Complete your Post Session Commitment form today.
